

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Scholarships available and deadline extended for Kids Art Camp 2011!

The Bedford County Arts Council has a limited number of scholarships available for Art Camp. Students who qualify for free or reduced lunches at their school are eligible. Students must provide a copy of their qualification form, along with samples of their art and/or a letter of recommendation from their art teacher.

The deadline for signup for all students is now July 18th. Class cost is $125.00 per student. Payment is due in full by the sign up deadline.

The weeklong camp will run Monday, August 1st to Friday, August 5th, from 9:00-3:00.

Instructors Michael and Jade Corle return to teach this intensive week of art immersion. Students will create a diverse mix of projects, explore a variety of different artistic mediums, and learn about the history of the art forms.

The week will culminate in an art show of the student's work that will run August 6-28. There will be an opening reception on Sunday, August 7 for students, families, and the public from 1:00-3:00.

Projects include:

Coverlet Museum-a visit to the national museum (located right here in Bedford) to learn about the history of weaving in America and the importance of the Jacquard System

Kevin Kutz-a tour of the works on exhibit at Cabin Fever Gallery

Photography-hands on exploration with guest instructor and professional photographer Ryan Chandler

Group Installation- students will learn about the history of installation art and create a temporary piece in the Art Center gallery

Plein Air-our now famous drawing sessions take students out of the classroom and into the beauty of historic downtown Bedford.

And much, much more!!!

Requirements

Note: This year our age requirements have changed

Students entering into 4th through 8th grade are eligible to attend the camp.

Students should wear old clothes and sun block.

Students who have attended the camp in the past are automatically eligible.

New students must present samples of their art and/or a letter of recommendation from their art teacher.

The cost of the camp is $125.00. All students must be registered and paid by July 18th.
