Hometown Bank Teams with Build the Barn for Quilt Auction

Hometown Bank of Bedford for the Month of June 2011 will be displaying the 2010 Quilt from the Bedford County Fair.

The Log Cabin Quilt which was made of quilt patterns that were entered at the 2009 Bedford County Fair. Additional patches were donated by Avanelle Imes. The quilt was pieced and quilted at the 2010 Fair by the following: Sharon Donahoe, Kevin Horton, Mabel Jordan, Ada Mae Myers, Joan Phillips, Marcia Reffner, Pat Rosenburgh, Makenna Williams (5 years old), Peggy Zembower, Wyatt A. Zimmerman Leslie Foore and other visitors of the 2010 Fair. The quilt measure 62" x 86".

The Quilt was given to the Build the Barn committee to help raise funds for the replacement of the third barn that was built in the 1950's. All three of the 1950's horse barns have been torn down, a 40 stall barn was built in 2010. The Goal is to raise enough money to construct a second 26 stall horse barn. By building a second horse barn, we will have the amount of stall space needed to accommodate all 4-H, FFA and other horse activities held at the Bedford Fairgrounds. The project goal is to raise $100,000.00 to complete both barns. Hometown Bank will be taking silent auction bids through June 30th The Quilt will be award on July 1st to the highest bidder.

Hometown Bank's Bedford and Everett locations will also have a Community Day on Friday, June 24 with food and activities to help benefit the Build the Barn committee for the construction of the second barn. All contributions on any amount can be made to the BCAS-Fair Barn Account and mailed to the Bedford County Fair, P.O. Box 244 Bedford, PA 15522.
