Union Hotel to Host CMT Show Premier Featuring Pete Westwood

Everett, Pennsylvania, July 12, 2011—The Union Hotel is pleased to announce a special event: the Premier of the CMT show, "Sweet Home Alabama", featuring an appearance by cast member Pete Westwood at the Bulls Head Tavern on Thursday, July 14th.

Westwood, age 22, is a music professional, actor and comedian who grew up in Bedford County and currently resides in New York City. He is featured as part of the cast of Country Music Television's new dating show, "Sweet Home Alabama", set to debut Thursday evening at 9 o'clock p.m.

Westwood is listed as one of the 10 "city-slickers" vying for the romantic interest of Devin Grissom against 10 "country-guys" in a "Bachelorette"-style program.

The Union Hotel will host a debut party with activities beginning at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, followed by the showing of the "Sweet Home Alabama" Premier at 9 o'clock. Westwood will be in attendance for the event, along with representatives from CMT.

Following the broadcast, Westwood will host a special comedy edition of the Bulls Head Tavern's popular Trivia Night beginning at 10 p.m. The special event pays tribute to Westwood's career as a stand-up comic. The event is free and open to the public.

The Union Hotel is located at 12128 East Main Street Everett, PA.
